Our office staff is always working to stay up to date in helping our church care for family members and friends who are ill, in the hospital or in need of prayers. If someone you love has been hospitalized, is in need of prayer or has any kind of special need that you would like the church to know about, please call the office at 513-662-2048 or send an e-mail at office@cheviotumc.com.

Not everyone wants information shared publicly.

We will only announce from the pulpit or send in an e-mail, that you ask to be shared with the entire congregation and are approved by the person involved.

Scoring Results

Where Are You Today?

A Focused Kingdom Purpose (+25 points)

Based on your answers, your God-given strengths seem clear and your specific purpose from God is well-defined. Your life is in balance and is providing lasting fulfillment. You strive to live a surrendered life so that you can find freedom in your role as a servant. You invest in the lives of others on a regular basis. You have come a long way in utilizing your God-given strengths. You feel you are truly living the life you were meant to live.

A Fragmented Kingdom Purpose (15-25 points)

Based on your answers, your God-honoring purpose seems a bit cluttered. Your strengths are somewhat confused because you are over-extended in many areas of your life—something we can all relate to. There are times when you feel you are using your gifts for God, but there are other issues, emotions, and desires that you still need to surrender to God. You desire to invest in others, but you have not committed the time. You have a few goals in place, but no master plan has been established. You feel you are living the life you were created for, but you long for greater clarity.

A Frustrated Kingdom Purpose (Less than 15 points)

Based on your answers, you are confused about your specific purpose in life for God. You lack a clear idea of who you are and you have few clues about what God made you to do. Your specific God-given strengths are unknown. Investing in others is not currently a priority of your life. While this seems like a negative, it is really a positive! This awareness opens the door for you to take specific steps to discover your true purpose in life.

Monthly Mission Offering

This month's mission offering will go towards the Parish Fund. Everyone experiences times in their life when they need help to get through a challenging situation. In scripture, we are told that everyone should carry their own load, but it also says that we should bear one another's burdens. A burden is a challenge that comes into our life that cannot be carried alone. We are blessed to have the parish fund to be able to assist people for those times in their life--whether it is to assist with a utility bill, a car repair, or a medical need. Your special mission offering will make it possible for people to overcome the unexpected hurdles that life often puts in their path. Thank you for helping our church to bear one another's burdens in times of need.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us, this day, our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us, not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

PARENTS AND KIDS INVITED TO CELEBRATION OF MUSIC AND MISSION—Hosted by Contemporary Worship committee

Kids! Bring your parents to church to enjoy a wonderful music event with My Brother's Keeper on Sunday, July 7th at 10am in the main sanctuary. Families are invited to come for great music, food, and a celebration of mission. Parents of small children can relax in our Werner lounge and enjoy the music or join us in the main sanctuary. Kids can come and sit in a special section with Miss Paula, hear a fun and inspiring kids' message from Pastor Carrie, receive a free gift. All families are invited to join us for lunch and ice cream in the courtyard after church.

Contemporary Worship Invites You: A huge thank you to Miles Jena and Adam Steele for serving as our contemporary worship leaders for the summer. Adam and Miles will be with us through August 11th when Miles will return to Ball State to pursue his degree in Music Media Production. Adam is pursuing his degree in Information Technology, is engaged to be married to Dezarae next October and is passionate about music. The Contemporary worship team would like to invite you to join us one or more Sundays to experience worship with Miles and Adam. If you have young people in your families who may not attend church or who are looking for a church, please invite them. This is a great way to help grow the contemporary worship service and to get to know these musicians. Also, Miles and Adam are hoping to grow the band and are looking for vocalists, drummers, violinists, and cellists. If you are interested, please contact Miles at miles.jena54@gmail.com
