BAPTISM

Be Thou My Vision

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me, save that thou art -
thou my best thought, by day or by night;
waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word;
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord.
Thou my great Father; thine own may I be,
thou in me dwelling and I one with thee.

Riches I heed not, nor vain, empty praise;
thou mine inheritance, now and always;
thou and thou only first in my heart,
high King of heaven, my treasure thou art.

High King of heaven, my victory won,
may I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

The Congregational Care Committee is organizing visits to those in our church family who are unable to attend Sunday services. We are visiting the following members: Eileen Annest, Betty Griesmeyer, Carl and Kathryn Grueninger, Jim Harris, Esther Hasselbeck, Sallie Krieg, Gerald and Helen Perry, Ruth Simmons and Mary Scott. If you know of other members who might like visits please contact Linda Page 574-1853 or the church office 662-2048.

We will be in Werner lounge Sunday, October 20th for sign ups to visit these church members.

NEW SERMON SERIES

October 20 begins our new sermon series: Our God is a generous God. His extravagant love is all around us, but we often can't see it. We can begin to think of God as withholding, angry, punitive, and distant. When, in reality, God's extravagant generosity is toward us when we reflect on the generous life that we are called to live in response. Do we really believe that there is enough? Or do we nurture a scarcity mindset? Join us for this 6-week Stewardship Series and let your eyes be opened to the reality of our generous God.

MISSIONS

SCRIPTURES

Joshua 3:7-17 (NIV)

And the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so they may know that I am with you as I was with Moses. Tell the priests who carry the ark of the covenant: 'When you reach the edge of the Jordan's waters, go and stand in the river.'"

Joshua said to the Israelites, "Come here and listen to the words of the LORD your God. This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that he will certainly drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites and Jebusites. See, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth will go into the Jordan ahead of you. Now then, choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe. And as soon as the priests who carry the ark of the LORD—the Lord of all the earth—set foot in the Jordan, its waters flowing downstream will be cut off and stand up in a heap." So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them. Now the Jordan is at flood stage all during harvest. Yet as soon as the priests who carried the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water's edge, the water from upstream stopped flowing. It piled up in a heap a great distance away, at a town called Adam in the vicinity of Zarethan, while the water flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah (that is, the Dead Sea) was completely cut off. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho. The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stopped in the middle of the Jordan and stood on dry ground, while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.

Ephesians 3:17-21 (NIV)

so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

VISION FOR 2020 AND BEYOND--Growth

Growing Deep—Implement a church-wide strategy for all people to grow in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and an understanding of God's Word Growing High—Seek ways for our church to take the church to the community rather than waiting for the community to come to us. Create more opportunities for people in our community to connect to Cheviot UMC and to recognize our church as a valuable resource in their lives

Grow Wide—Seek ways to invite and include young people into the life of our church by increasing our engagement with children, families, and young adults.
