CALL TO WORSHIP:

Lois Schalk-Hartley

Leader-Why have we gathered?

People--We have gathered to give witness to the presence of God's Spirit in our time.

Leader-This Spirit has moved Jesus' disciples throughout the centuries to proclaim Jesus Christ with a burning desire

People--Jesus' disciples were people set on fire by the coming of God's Holy Spirit.

Leader-We pray for that same Holy Spirit to move among us.

People--May God's Spirit transform that which is hard and dead, and rekindle our faith and actions with the flame of Pentecost.

PRAYING TOGETHER

Silent Prayer • Pastoral Prayer • the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us, this day, our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us, not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION:

Come, Holy Spirit, come. Give us power to be Your church. Impart Your many gifts to our church that we may be the body of Christ's presence in the world. Free us from all fear, and renew our life together. Come, Holy Spirit, come. Bind us close together in Christ's love. We pray that You will use our tithes and offerings to extend Your Kingdom through-out the world. Come Holy Spirit, come, that all may be one in Christ. Christ is our true peace, the One Who is with us through the Holy

Lois Schalk-Hartley

SCRIPTURE Acts 2:1-21 (NIV) When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place Suddenly a Spirit, today and always even to the end of time. A-Men sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. Utterly amazed, they asked: "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?"

Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine." Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

"In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.

And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'

The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God
